A PART OF PRAYER IS
LISTENING TO GOD, &
WATCHING FOR HIS DIRECTION AND ANSWERS

One Good News Club teacher in our Carmel Valley area asked, "Why can't I just praise Him from the beginning since His faithfulness will always be my conclusion?"

We can. We can praise Him because He instructs us to rejoice in the Lord, always. (Phil. 4:4)

We praise Him for opening and continuing to open more clubs than we could have ever imagined. We praise Him for children being saved, growing and witnessing to their peers. We praise Him for faithful, loving volunteers at every level of need.

We also praise Him that He knows the taxes and insurances that are due for such an operation as our CEF chapter and He will be able to keep us operating.

Thank you for praying and giving!

Let's not be discouraged or delay in doing what God has called our hearts to do, in using what He has put in our hands or of igniting praise and prayer among His children. Why should this generation be like that in Judges 2:10, "...a generation that did not know the Lord nor what He had done," when we have the light of Christ to shine out to every child?"
